My focus as The Somerset Celebrant is to deliver highly professional, outstanding and memorable ceremonies for all my clients. As part of my service, the below terms and conditions are in place to protect my clients by ensuring that there is a clear understanding of the expectations, by all parties.

Please read, sign and return a copy of your contract, and retain a copy for your records, as failure to do so may result in withdrawal of celebrancy services.

Wedding Ceremonies conducted by The Somerset Celebrant are not legally binding. It is your responsibility if you wish to make your union a legally recognised marriage.

Deposits are non-refundable, and full payment is required with cleared funds fourteen days before the ceremony date.

The Somerset Celebrant reserves the right to retain any monies paid, should you choose to cancel your ceremony. Any return of payments made to the Somerset Celebrant, are at the discretion of the Somerset Celebrant.

Should the date of your ceremony change, The Somerset Celebrant will endeavour to come to an agreement with you to move the ceremony to a date which suits us all.

You agree to inform the Somerset Celebrant of any changes to music, vows, readings/poems, unity ceremonies, participating children or adults, or anything effecting the ceremony, with reasonable notice of no less than two weeks before your ceremony date.

Terms and Conditions

To ensure the best delivery of the wedding ceremony, the expectation is that the final version of the ceremony is agreed by the client no later than one week before the wedding ceremony.

The Somerset Celebrant is not responsible for any accident or injury caused to anybody during any unity ceremonies, and these are performed with full acknowledgement of this by the client.

Any wine/mead/food/drink used during unity ceremonies is to be supplied by clients and not by The Somerset Celebrant, due to allergies or food intolerances.

It is the responsibility of the clients to seek and gain approval from their venue for unity ceremonies, in particular, unity candle ceremonies.

Travel costs are 0.45per mile on each journey after the first 20 miles, which are free. I am prepared to travel across the UK and abroad. Distances are measured from either Street, Somerset or Padstow, Cornwall, whichever is the closer to the venue.

The Somerset Celebrant will not be held responsible for lateness due to circumstances beyond her control, such as traffic, accidents and extreme weather conditions. If venue/ceremony location is over a 100 miles, an overnight stay is suggested to prevent issues of lateness, due to traffic and the above.

Writing your perfect wedding ceremony will take the completion of The Wedding Ceremony Questionnaire, meetings (face to face or by SKYPE), and emails, texts and messages. Clients are to respond to The Somerset Celebrant's request for information within a reasonable timescale, or the timescale given, and failure to do this can result in withdrawal of celebrancy services, and the retaining of any money paid.

The client must sign a GDPR consent form, to enable The Somerset Celebrant to collect, process, keep and store personal data, and to make contact, via email, text message, telephone or post, in line with UK GDPR legislation.

The Somerset Celebrant reserves the right to leave the ceremony venue/location after one hour if clients do not attend, or keep her informed of reasons for lateness / non-attendance.
